A creative exploration of music and dance

During this one-hour and 45-minute workshop, young artists are invited to explore the creative process of music- and dance-making. Through guided instruction, students will create a song and dance based on Maya Angelou's "Caged Bird."

Ages 8-14

No experience necessary

11:00am to 12:45pm - Workshop

12:45 to 1:00pm - Q&A session

Students are welcome to participate in the full workshop or stop by to see what it's all about. Parents and families are also welcome to observe!

There will be a Q&A session after the workshop, from 12:45pm to 1:00pm, for parents, families and students to learn more about the program, our curriculum and other upcoming arts education classes offered by Goddard Riverside's Community Arts program.
