

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

Safe Haven at 491 E. 91st Street

To Open in 2022

About Goddard Riverside

We work every day for a fair and just society where all people have the opportunity to make choices that lead to better lives for themselves and their families.

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

Goddard History

- An NYC heritage dating back to the 1850s
- Serving UWS since 1934
- Roots in the settlement house movement
- Pioneer of homeless services

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

Goddard Riverside Today

- Serving more than 20,000 individuals across New York City each year
- Headquartered on UWS
- Community-centered and locally-focused
- 22 locations across Manhattan and 1 in Queens
- Provide services across age span

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

Goddard Riverside Today

- Preparing Children and Youth for Success
- Enriching the Lives of Older Adults
- Promoting Behavioral Health and Wellness
- Fighting Homelessness and Supporting Housing for All
- Strengthening Families and Communities

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

A Continuum of Services

- Advocacy for affordable housing
- Resource Center links families to benefits and services
- Law Project to protect tenant rights
- Homeless outreach in Manhattan, including the UES
- Safe Havens and Supportive Housing
- Multiple mental health programs
- Job training and community integration

Housing & Homelessness Experience

- Helped develop the homeless outreach and supportive housing models
- Nationally recognized as a pioneer in homeless services
- Co-Founded Manhattan Outreach Consortium

The New York Times

The Many Lives of a New York S.R.O.

Capitol Hall, a single-room-occupancy residence for decades on West 87th Street, has undergone a top-to-bottom renovation. Kirsten Luce for The New York Times

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

From Homeless to Housed

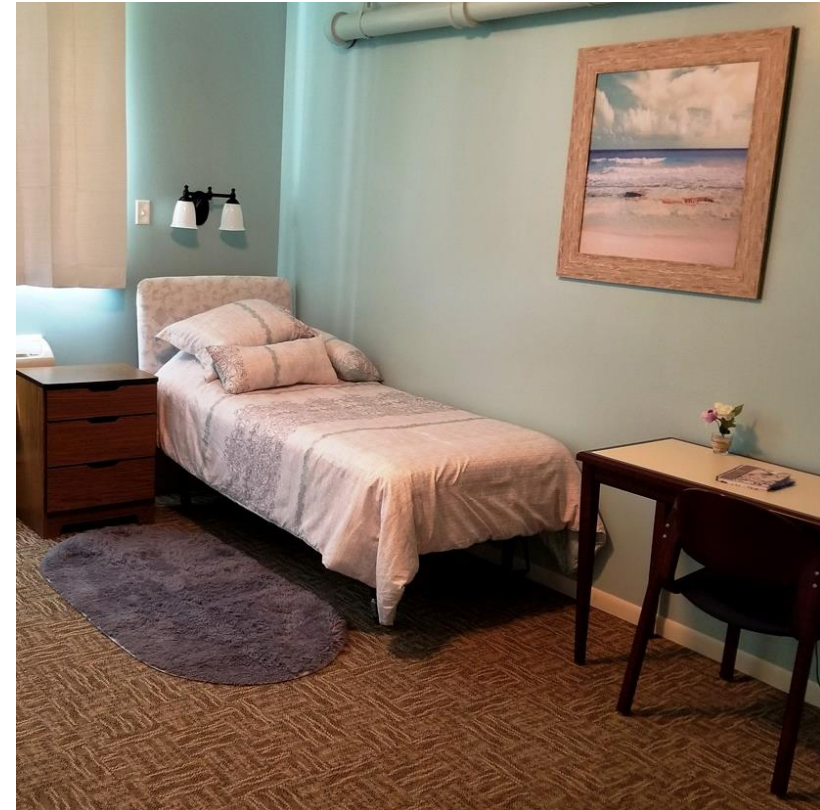

- Four Permanent Supportive Housing Sites serving 421 tenants
- Wide range of support services

Placements from outreach in 2020:

- Current caseload 210; 190 placed in permanent or transitional housing in 2020
- Current UES caseload 50; 39 placed in permanent or transitional housing in 2020

What is a Safe Haven?

- Moving people off the street
- On-site social services, counseling and support
- On-site health, wellness and recreation
- Path to permanent housing

Goddard Riverside

INVESTING IN PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

Safe Haven for E 91st Street

- 88 beds; purpose-built
- Serving residents from UES and other neighborhoods in NYC
- Private space and lockers for each resident, rooftop recreation area, meals and social services provided
- Projected opening January 2022
- Opportunities for Community Engagement